

THE FIRESTARTER

I'M NOT CRAZY, I PREFER THE TERM MENTALLY HILARIOUS

it's our big BANG of a September long weekend!! Have you registered for the ceramic paint night?

As you can see, the big tent is all set and ready for the festivities. We ask that everyone please wait until 12:00pm on Saturday to put your table and chairs under the tent.

We are excited about the BBQ! Please remember that this is all volunteer run. We may run into a few snags here and there, but we hope we can make a delicious dinner for y'all.

And of course, how can we forget... The FIREWORKS!! It's going to be a fantastic night!

(Rain date for fireworks will be on Sunday September 1st)

Get ready to Paw-ty!!

we sometimes hear about dogs getting scared and running away from the fireworks. This can be very unfortunate for the family and the puppy. Try to keep your dog inside while the fireworks are going off to keep them safe and happy.

The fireworks are scheduled for 9:30pm on Saturday August 31st.

It's that time of year again! All deposits for 2025 are due September 30th. The fall letter was emailed to everyone in the campground on August 19, 2024. If you did not receive it, please contact us by email at sprucesands@gmail.com and we will send it off to ya as soon as possible.

Leaf it to us!!

Leaf collection resumes in September! Remember, please do not put rocks, broken items, garbage or anything other than leaves in a compostable leaf bag. This includes, 3/4 down gravel, plant pots of either plastic or ceramic, duct tape, painters tape, packing tape, scotch tape, aluminum cans, chip bags... just to name a few. But not excluding leaves and pot plants or money. (This was dictated by Damon... should we let Damon write a newsletter a year?)

Did you enjoy the events this summer? Is there an event you would like to host or organize? Please contact Jacqui in management and she will help to facilitate in any way that she can. All of the events are organized by volunteers and we can not express to everyone how grateful we are for each and every one of them. The events are what brings us closer as a community. How lucky are we to have such a cool community!

THE COOKIE SHEET

CARAMALIZED ONION DIP

3 medium size yellow onions
2 tablespoons salted butter
2 teaspoons each salt and sugar
1/4 cup dry white wine
12 ounces sour cream
8 ounces cream cheese, softened
1 clove fresh garlic, grated (optional)
fresh flat-leaf parsley, minced, to taste
a few dashes of Worcestershire sauce or soy sauce to taste

Peel the onions and slice them very thinly.

Heat the butter in a nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add the onions, sprinkle with salt and sugar, and saute for 10-15 minutes, stirring every few minutes. Pour a little bit of wine in and let it sizzle out. Stir, add wine, sizzle, etc. After about 30 minutes, your onions should be deeply golden brown and fragrant. Transfer onions to a cutting board and chop coarsely into small pieces. In a separate bowl, mix the cream cheese and sour cream with a hand mixer or a spoon (depending on how soft the cream cheese is). Stir in the onions and a handful of fresh parsley.

YOU DON'T SAY

A Chinese zoo has given up on its plans to help an overweight leopard lose weight after two months of efforts yielded virtually no results. Back in March, a leopard at the Panzhuhua Park Zoo in China's Sichuan Province became an overnight internet sensation after photos and videos of him went viral online. The overweight feline quickly became known as 'China's Officer Clawhauser', a reference to the overweight police officer from Disney's hit animated movie, Zootopia. Many people joked that the fat leopard resembled a seal, while others took his deformed frame more seriously, expressing concerns about the animal's health and general well-being. Due to mounting criticism, the zoo was eventually to put out a statement, promising to make a series of changes to make the leopard lose some of its extra weight. However, it recently announced that its initiative failed miserably, as the real-life Officer Clawhauser hasn't lost any weight in two months.
